

UTAH LEAGUE OF CITIES AND TOWNS

AN INVITATION TO EXHIBIT

2018 ULCT ANNUAL CONVENTION SEPTEMBER 12-14, 2018 SALT LAKE CITY SHERATON

Utah League of Cities and Towns

Established in 1907, the Utah League of Cities and Towns (ULCT) is a service organization to the 247 cities and towns in the State of Utah. The ULCT provides a variety of services that benefit municipal officials including training, educational publications, legal assistance and legislative representation.

What is the ULCT Annual Convention?

The ULCT Annual Convention is a three-day educational conference for municipal officials, with 40-plus workshops, which focuses on the primary issues affecting municipal government and revolves around timely issues of discussion and innovative approaches to resolving those issues.

Who attends?

Attendees are municipal officials from all parts of Utah including: mayors, council members, city managers, city recorders, town clerks, treasurers, attorneys, planners, engineers, fire chiefs, finance directors, and park & recreation directors.

Who should exhibit?

Any company that offers products or services that benefit local government.

Why should your company exhibit?

- The customer has hands-on experience with your product.
- You meet hard-to-reach customers.
- You meet customers you didn't know existed.
- You have the customer's undivided attention.
- You are not interrupted by phone calls or secondary messages.
- You will make as many contacts during the show as you can in months on the road, eliminating costly expenses.

Participating as an exhibitor presents the opportunity to increase your product's or service's visibility by making new contacts and solidifying existing relationships with local government officials in the State of Utah.
